

1 Step formula to change your life

Have you been searching and searching for the right psychic reader for you? Have you felt that most of the readers that you have talked to did not really understand you fully? Or something was just off?

Have you spent thousands and thousands of dollars on psychic readings, yet do not see any real improvement in your life? Have you spent money on psychic readings only to regret it moments later? Do you sometimes feel out of control contacting one psychic after another, asking the same question over and over?

Worse yet, have you spent top dollar on a psychic reading only to be snapped at by the reader? I have heard many horror stories....

And then, I have met many who are unable to find the right partner, the right job and life is not exactly smooth and easy. Or yet, they are deeply troubled and confused about what to do with their marriage/relationship.

If any of these resonate, then you have come to the right place. In this free guide, I will give you an explanation of the root cause of your problems and the 1 step solution. When I do readings, I am connected to your energy, I feel what you are feeling, I know what you are thinking and I also see the blocks that surround you. Through manifestation coaching sessions, I can even tell you how to systematically remove these blocks, so your path becomes clear and you feel less burdened and stressed.

Before I get to the root cause of your problems and the 1 step solution, here is a little bit about me...

About me

I am not an astronaut that went into outer space. I am not a miner who digs below the earth. I am a regular person who happens to have access to the outside world- the world that you cannot see with your eyes. I have had access to the spiritual world for many years and I have it every day. I receive messages from spirit for my clients, and spirit guides me on my path as well. This spiritual world is invisible but can provide extraordinary guidance. I have been reading the tarot professionally for many years. It started as a hobby and turned into a business. I have read for thousands of clients all around the world. Spirit tells me I am supposed to help many more that are in need. Spirit also tells me I am supposed to help not thousands, but millions. I read the tarot under the spirit name Flying Horses. I provide one-on-one consultations regarding any area of life including money, job, love/relationship, business, marriage, spirituality, life progress, etc.

What I specialize in is tuning into your energy and being able to tell you how to get results. What I do is not an exact science and I cannot guarantee results. I usually suggest some homework that you need to do diligently to change your energy. It is something that is easy to do, not burdensome. It is different for different people. But consistency is required. I do not and cannot check if you are doing the work. But for the most part, if you follow my suggestions, there are exceptionally good chances of you getting what you want. In some cases, you may end up getting something a whole lot better. But in any case, you should be able to go a lot farther and life will be a lot easier with my guidance.

There are many motivational speakers who speak to a mass audience. I strongly believe most of the motivational speakers have contributed enormously to humanity. Those teachings are helpful and contain valuable information. But only a minority truly benefit because they are not designed for any one individual, but for the collective. If one person is truly dedicated, they can turn their life around just by reading lots of books, applying discipline and hard work, using their imagination, and having faith. But for the majority what ends up happening is confusion and despair. They will go to seminars and buy books-only to leave those books to gather dust on the bookshelf. If they do begin to read, they will read a few pages and then stop. Even if they manage to finish one book, they will not apply what they learned. This is not to say those individuals are at fault because they lack motivation. In my opinion, the reality is that they did not find the confidence that the content in the books will deliver. If this is true for you, would you agree?

For all those of you that are seeking correct guidance, I recommend a one-on-one consultation with me. What I specialize in is offering guidance which includes solutions and remedies that come to my mind as I am reading for you. Everyone's energy is different and so is their astrology. Even for the same individual, the energy will change from time to time. Somehow, I can tune into your energy and tell you how you can maximize your chances of getting what you want. I offer manifestation coaching- which is a continuous process (not a one-time reading). For all other concerns, I can investigate your situation and offer my perspective and advice.

Root cause of your problems and the 1 step solution

Each one of you is different and your energy is different. Even from time to time, your own personal energy will vary. Yet, if I must pinpoint the root cause that is troubling the majority or all of you- it is that there is a big gap between your future self and your present self. To understand this concept, you should put on your rose-colored glasses. Not literally, of course!!

When I say future self, you should imagine a version of you that is not suffering in the way you are. This person has solutions and every aspect of their life is up to their liking. All the big obvious aspects as well as all the tiny and microscopic aspects. This is because they are focused on a creative cycle of life and not the destructive cycle.

This future self is busy enjoying life, spending time with their ideal partner, or spending time on their ideal vocation, traveling if they have a desire to travel, etc. etc. In other words, your future self is having good experiences, not bad ones. You can say for most of the time, your future self is having good experiences. They are not complaining because there is nothing to complain about. May be seldomly.

The big question then becomes how do you become this future self – or get as close as possible?

Each one of you deserve to become your future self or your ideal self. Your definition of your ideal self can also change from time to time. You came into this world to create- not to rot away amongst problems and confusion. You can create in a multitude of ways. You can choose which way to create. You will choose what comes easily to you. You can become a wonderful mother, a great painter, a musician, a cook, a writer, an actor or even a politician. Every vocation requires creativity. Every thing you do also can also use creativity.

Now going back to the topic of becoming your future self- how do you do it?

Can it happen overnight? Absolutely not.

How long will it take? As long as it takes. The speed of manifestation depends on you.

Can you do it all by yourself? Of course, you can. It will require dedication, planning, imagination, and probably other things too. But if you are dedicated, you can figure it out.

The other way is to get ongoing guidance from an intuitive counsellor. Someone who can empower you whenever you need a boost. It is not easy to empower yourself and feel inspired when you are in a difficult situation. Instead of running from one reader to another, like a mad chicken, I recommend sticking to one reader of your choice. Let them guide you through the ups and downs of life. I also recommend getting a thorough analysis of your personal energy (through a tarot reading), your horoscope (through an astrology reading) and your environment (through a Vaastu analysis). For more details you can check the section on my website on “Why you should get a tarot reading, horoscope consultation and Vaastu consultation together for your unique situation”?

My website is www.psychic4life.com.

There are other ways also that you can explore like numerology, finding your lucky days, your lucky numbers, etc.

So, your 1 step solution is to find the right reader for you and to stick to them for the rest of your life. Choosing the right reader/intuitive counsellor is an important decision- one that can and probably will make a mighty difference in how your life will turn out. While contemplating, you should ask yourself – can this reader take me from where I am to my ideal life? Can they help me manifest? I may have to do a lot of work and have faith, but can this reader guide me through thick and thin?

Go with your gut and decide.

You do not have to choose me as your guide/intuitive counsellor. But if you do, I will be honored.

One of my clients many years back left me the most wonderful review. She said, “Keep doing what you are doing. The world needs you.” Unfortunately, I lost touch with this lady. This was several years ago. As I am writing this guide, it is June 2020. Perhaps, she will come across this exact paragraph one day. I look forward to connecting with her again!!

My special offer for you

If you have read this far, you deserve a reward. If you are reading this and would like to receive a 60-minute intuitive guidance session send me an email with your request and mention the word “magic”. That way I will know that you came across this paragraph. Spirit tells me that I should never do free readings. This session I am offering will not be completely free and is only offered once per individual. You will be required to make a payment prior to the reading. But you can decide whatever amount you wish to pay!! You can refer to my website to see my normal rates. My website is www.psychic4life.com. Please keep in mind that I may or may not be able to give you this special reading. A lot depends on what I have going on. So, I must use my discretion on this one. But I love the idea of connecting with my tribe- so sooner or later I will probably get to you. If you are in a hurry, you can go ahead and book a session on my website. You will reach me a lot faster that way.

To avail of this opportunity...

Step1: Send me an email at readings@psychic4life.com with information on your full name, date of birth and gender. Also write a description of your situation and your questions.

Step2: Wait for me to acknowledge. As you can imagine, if I get a ton of requests, I cannot take care of everyone at once. I also have clients on my calendar that have purchased readings. I also cannot guarantee I will be able to give you this special offer.

Step3: Once you receive a reply from me, you can go ahead and make the payment of your choice. After making your payment, email me again so we can decide on a date and time. All readings will be done via Skype. Make sure to send me your Skype handle.

Like I said, I would love to connect with each one of you. Feel free to email me with any questions or concerns. If you want to take advantage of my offer- make sure you write the word “magic” in your original email. I cannot promise when I will be able to do the session for you or if I will be able to at all. But expect the unexpected. I may get back to you within a day, within 7 days or after 6 months. It just depends. I hope you understand.

So, make sure you wear your lucky color, and send me this email on your lucky day at the lucky time. Just kidding!!

Something to keep in mind...

Make sure you understand, that when I read for you I am channeling messages from spirit. My advice is not coming from personal experience. There is a lot that I can tell you based on my personal experiences. But experience of spirit is vast, deep, and infinite. It is like comparing a bucket of water versus the mighty ocean. I am not giving you solutions because those solutions worked for me in my personal life. I cannot physically be in the same shoes as each one of you out there. But through spirit, I can connect with anyone who is receptive. Guidance in the readings comes because I am channeling messages from spirit. I am telling you what I am receiving for you. Spirit tells me sometimes to also share my personal experiences, whenever appropriate. I choose to use my discretion in this regard. In some cases, I do and in some cases I do not. For the most part, I like to focus on you and help you the best way I can.

Lastly, I do not read dead people. So, if you have questions about loved ones that have passed on the other side, I cannot help in this matter. I cannot help with lost and found questions. I do not do spells of any kind.

Hope you enjoyed this guide.

Wishing you the best,

Flying Horses
